

Lady Tigers

Girls' Summer Basketball Camp

The Gilbert Girls' Basketball program has been a model of excellence on and off the court for decades. The program steadily maintains a GPA above 3.5 and performs various service projects throughout the year. The varsity team consistently qualifies for the State Tournament and has advanced to the Final Four the last six seasons. Last year, every member of the varsity team was named to AZSports365 All-Academic Honor Roll.

Players will be instructed by the current Gilbert Girls' Basketball staff.

- Colton Walker Head Coach
- Ryan Burdge Varsity Assistant
- Briana McDowell Director of Basketball Operations
- Alexa Masini JV Head Coach
- Shelby Romero Freshmen Head Coach
- Breanna Conboy GJHS 8th Grade Coach

Colton Walker is entering his third season at Gilbert High School. In two years, he's led the Lady Tigers to a record of 37-15 and two semifinal appearances in the 5A State Tournament. Last season, he was named Coach of the Year in the 5A San Tan Region. Walker has also worked as a student manager and assistant coach for the West Virginia University (D1) and Benedictine University at Mesa (NAIA) women's basketball programs.

All camps will focus on fundamental basketball skills. Proper skill development will be taught in the following areas: shooting form - footwork - ball handling - passing - offensive and defensive concepts - teamwork - communication - HAVING FUN!

We intentionally limit our advertising to develop strong community and to provide an appropriate coach to player ratio.

The camps are for 2022-2023 7th-12th grade girls. All sessions are Mon-Thurs at South Valley Junior High School from 2:00 pm - 4:00 pm unless noted otherwise. There will be no camp on Memorial Day.

All attendees will receive a reversible jersey and camp t-shirt.
